I am emotionally ready

- With support from a familiar adult, I am able to leave my mummy, daddy or main carer
- I can show empathy for others, by sharing a toy
- I enjoy exploring the environment, and trying new activities knowing a familiar adult is nearby
- I can approach a familiar adult and ask for help, if I'm unsure

I am socially ready

- With support from a familiar adult I am able to share with others
- I can play alongside others in a similar situation
- I am able to make simple choices
- I am starting to understand right and wrong

I am physically ready

- I am starting to understand and indicate when I need the toilet/nappy change.
- With support from a familiar adult I can wash and dry my hands
- I can find my peg and hang up my belongings
- I can walk, run and climb on different levels and surfaces.
- When mark making I can make connections between the marks I make

I am ready to communicate

- I enjoy listening to familiar stories and rhymes
- I can follow simple one step instructions
- I can use 3/4 word sentences, often supported by gestures with familiar adults
- I am starting to talk about myself, my family and past events
- I am starting to use who, what, when and how

Literacy

- I enjoy joining in with favourite books and rhymes
- I enjoy mark making using a variety of materials and mediums

Mathematics

- I enjoy exploring capacity by filling and emptying containers
- I can say numbers in order and am starting to count using my fingers

Understanding the World

- In pretend play I can imitate actions and events from my family and home environment.
- I can talk about plants, animals and my local environment

Expressive Arts & Design

- I enjoy using musical instruments to explore sounds
- I am able to use tools for a purpose of my choice